C4-Explicit enhancement restores the intended polarity

Context-grounded rewriting resolves reference, disambiguates pragmatics, and states the implicit sentiment.

LOCAL DISCOURSE CONTEXT

Turn -2 "The trailer looked exciting."

Turn -1 "But the plot went nowhere.
I kept checking the time."

Target "Yeah, that was just great."

Audio  subtle / ambiguous prosody

Visual  weak facial evidence

Illustrative MOSI-style example (not a verbatim dataset sample)

C4-Explicit rewrite
"‘That’ refers to the movie.
‘Great’ is sarcastic; the speaker
actually found the movie
very disappointing."
